Absentee ballots available

One Member One Vote

One advantage of being a member of Eau Claire Energy Cooperative is that each member has one vote in the annual Board of Directors' election. Directors are elected according to district, but each member votes for all district positions. The opportunity for you to vote for your board members comes up again on Tuesday March 16, 2010 at the

(A joint membership may cast only one collective vote on each issue or for each elective position.)

73rd Annual Meeting at the Florian Gardens in Eau Claire. Watch your March issue of the WEC News magazine for complete details on the meeting as well as the candidate biographies and photographs.

In January the Nominating Committee met at the Eau Claire Energy Cooperative headquarters and selected the slate of candidates for three positions on the Board of Directors.

Absentee ballots available after February 26, 2010

If you are unable to attend the ECEC Annual Meeting on Tuesday March 16, 2010 you may request an absentee ballot from the cooperative and vote for Director candidates.

To obtain your absentee ballot, contact Patty Chambers at 715-836-6461 or 888-832-1604, extension 245. Or mail this request form to the following address so we receive it by noon on March 3, 2010.
