ONE MEMBER, ONE VOTE

This is your chance to take part in the democratic process of your cooperative. One advantage of being a member of Eau Claire Energy Cooperative is that each member has one vote in the annual Board of Directors' election. Directors are placed on the ballot according to district boundaries, but each member votes for all district positions. The opportunity for you to vote for your board members comes up again on Tuesday, March 15, 2022, at the 83rd Annual Meeting at The Florian Gardens in Eau Claire. Watch your March issue of the WEC News magazine for complete details on the meeting as well as the candidate biographies and photographs.

In December 2021 the Nominating Committee met at the Eau Claire Energy Cooperative headquarters and selected the slate of candidates for three of the districts that represent the Board of Directors.

District No. 3:

Ludington, and Seymour, East of County Road UN, Eau Claire County; Sigel, including the Village of Cadott, Goetz and Edson, Chippewa County; and the Town of Butler, Clark County

- Curtiss Williams
- John Zmuda

District No. 7:

Washington, East of South Lowes Creek Rd., North of Walnut Rd., and North of an Easterly extension of Walnut Rd. to Mathwig Rd., and North of Mathwig Rd., Eau Claire County, except land in District 2

- Andrew Bourget (I)
- Jeffrey White

District No. 9:

Wilson, Bridge Creek and Fairchild, Eau Claire County; Garfield, Cleveland and Northfield, Jackson County

- Clarence L. Boettcher (I)

A joint membership may cast only one collective vote on each issue or for each elective position.

Absentee ballots available after February 11, 2022

If you are unable to attend the ECEC Annual Meeting, you may request an absentee ballot from the cooperative and vote for director candidates.

Choose one of three ways to request your absentee ballot. We MUST receive your request in our office by 12:00 noon on February 23, 2022.

- Fill in and mail this request form to the address below

YOUTH AMBASSADORS GIVE BACK

Youth Ambassadors met in December at the ECEC office for a holiday-themed party, complete with ugly Christmas sweaters, candy canes, delicious food, and a lot of fun! It's a Youth Ambassador tradition to give back to the community, especially during the holiday season, so during their meeting, the group also assembled five tie blankets to distribute throughout the community to those in need. After making the blankets, Youth Ambassadors had a blast with fun “minute to win it” games. Prizes were awarded to the Youth Ambassadors for building the tallest mini marshmallow tower (or pile in most cases), being the fastest to move a cookie from their forehead to their mouth without using their hands, and, of course, the best ugly Christmas sweater.

Do you know a high schooler that would like to join in the fun? There are exciting things happening over the next few months! Applications are on our website at www.ecec.com in the Community tab.
